Austin, Minnesota, has a population of 24,000 and is located in southeastern Minnesota approximately 12 miles north of the Iowa border and approximately 90 miles south of the Twin Cities metro area. Austin is also 35 miles southwest of Rochester, Minnesota, home of the famous Mayo Clinic. For more information about Austin and area sites of interest, visit the Austin Convention and Visitor Bureau.

PARKING

Free onsite parking is available at the hotel and all sites used during the symposium.

TECHNOLOGY

Austin High School is a wireless campus. Attendees are strongly encouraged to bring personal technology to use during the symposium.

ACADEMIC CREDIT

Symposium participants may register for academic credit from Hamline University. Course information and registration forms will be available during onsite registration Monday, June 13 from 7:15 to 8:15 a.m. and at Command Central throughout the symposium. Fees for graduate or undergraduate credit will be in addition to the symposium registration fee.

CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS

CEUs will be available for Minnesota administrators and teachers at no charge. Teachers and administrators who attend all sessions will earn 28.5 CEUs. Administrators who attend Administrator Day on Monday only will receive 6 CEUs, those who choose to attend Administrator Day plus the optional STEM Camp lab will receive 8 CEUs. Pre-conference attendees will earn 3 CEUs.

BOOK FAIR

An onsite book fair with educational resources will be open as scheduled during the symposium. Materials can be purchased with cash, check or credit card, and receipts will be provided. On Wednesday, several of the symposium presenters will be on hand to sign copies of their publications.
